PRIDE OF SANKALP

Mukta Mam, Assistant Professor at Hazaribagh College is spearheading the classes at our Hazaribagh Centre along with her colleague Umesh and is bringing a radical change in the educational parameters of students at the centre.

Pahal Ek Nayi Soch, an NGO working for tribal and underprivileged children in Bihar contacted Sankalp to help establish a library for the children belonging to Musahar, an extremely backward caste, community. Sankalp helped Pahal to set up the first library and plans to set up 2 more libraries by this year end.

Navodaya batch has now got resumed for selected 7 students of class 5 at Aashiyana centre

Sponsorship distribution took place at Telco centre. The amount was donated to all the college going students and other students who needed it for their school fees and regular expenditure. Students who had scored good marks in their class 9, 10th and 11th standard were also awarded.

Ration distribution to needy people took place in Haryana. The NGO was supported by Sankalp in its endeavour. The NGO is in continuous touch with Sankalp and will be helped in next month for clothes distribution.

Online classes at our Dhanbad centre by Mr Sanjay Jha and his team from Australia. The team has also sent a smart TV for online classes by the members of Gyan Setu Team who are acting as a bridge between wealth of knowledge and sea of misery.

Sneha Jha from Netherlands, a volunteer of Gyan Setu Foundation took classes for students at Dhanbad center. The class mainly focused on the speaking ability and communication skills of the children.

President Sankalp has been awarded Honourable Doctorate by World Human Rights Protection Commission for work in the field of tribal children education

STUDENTS' ACHIEVEMENTS

Shyam Sardar, a student of our Telco Centre got admission in NTTF. NTTF is a residential education program for students enrolling in technical and vocational courses from where students get direct placement in Tata Steel. This was indeed a proud moment for Sankalp.

4 students from our Kalahandi centres got selected in Odisha Adarsh Vidyalaya annual exam. The students will now be provided free of cost education till Class 12th in the Adarsh Vidyalaya.
Mohangiri center-Lipsarani Kumar, Chhameswari Kumar
Talnuagaon center-Khelapriya Ghadei, Kalyani Dharua

CENTER REPORT

As most of the children enrolled at our centres come from marginal families having subsistence economic condition meagre enough to make both ends meet, Sankalp decided to distribute Ration across all the centres in Jamshedpur, Giridih and Orissa to help children and their families cope up with the economic turmoil caused by lockdown.

Ration was distributed to the families of more than 200 children enrolled at our Sihodih, Sirsiya & Sitalpur Centres in Giridih. Somnath took the lead and went from door to door to distribute the ration along with the team of volunteers. The event was given space in the daily locals in Hindi dailies

Plantation drive and fruit distribution was done by Ms. Mukta Sinha and villagers on Karma Puja at Chandwar, Churuchu, Hazaribagh Centre

A new teacher, Mr. Naresh who was appointed last month to take classes for our students of class 11th & 12th from Aashiyana Centre is regularly taking classes for the students.

Gandhi Jayanti was celebrated at Hazaribagh centre . After giving tribute to Gandhiji and Lal Bahadur Shastri ji a friendly match was organized & as prize a football was given to the children which will help in their overall development.

On the eve of Gandhi Jayanti, Stationary and dress distribution was done at Telco centre by Meena Mukherjee & Nikhil Sir.

An educational event of General quiz and Handwriting competition was organised by Youth Cultural Society, Giridih at Sankalp Centre, Chandwar, Hazaribagh. The winners of the competition were given prizes in form of geometry box and pencil box and all the other regular students participating were motivated by giving stationary

Cultural program was organized at Telco centre on the occasion of Republic Day. Students participated in the drawing making competition and prizes were given to outstanding students.

Mask and stationary distribution was organized at Telco centre by Reliance Foundation. The event was coordinated and led by Meena Didi and Nikhil Bhaiya.

Chandan Nayal, a renowned environmentalist took place on the preservation of ecology and safeguarding environment at our Dhanbad Centre.

Women's Day was celebrated at Hazaribagh centre by distribution of stationary and games amongst students

SPECIAL MENTION

1.To promote cultural activities at our centres, singing competition was organized at Dhanbad Centre. Many students who had never faced the audience sang in front of the entire class. This helped them to gain confidence in speaking at public forums.

2. Mansi & Simran, our Telco Centre students scored 85% in their school exams and topped at school level.
