16. One of the first blog written by Abhishek Kashyap from third year: “A little act of kindness creates a ripple that comes back to you.”

It all started within the four walls of just another, hostel room of NIT Jamshedpur. Back then a few hostellers took a worthy initiative to teach the poor children of the mess workers in their free time, free of cost. They neither imagined nor planned to see this little initiative, grow large enough to leave a positive impact on thousands. They were just another engineering students humble enough to utilize their free time in a much more productive and selfless way.

But soon enough they realized that there is a much larger population of children who are deprived of the basic education facilities. That very day they all decided 'to hell with circumstances; let us create an opportunity'. More students volunteered and joined hands with their purpose. With each passing month, the strength of this group increased exponentially. Finally, a few years later the group was named "Sankalp – A Pledge To Change", and since then we never looked back.

What once started within a 10x10 room, today expands across 12 centres and three states of India. Till date, Sankalp is run and completely managed by the alumni and students of NIT Jamshedpur. We here believe in the fact that "Education is the most powerful weapon we can use to change the world", and hence we provide free of cost tuition to more than 800 students and sponsor the complete education of 78 students. Our main strength lies within the large number of dedicated volunteers, who look forward to leave an impact on the society. Volunteers joined Sankalp as a part of it; today Sankalp has become an inevitable part of them; such is the impact of the Sankalp family.

Sankalp does not work for glory. Sankalp does not work for recognition. There is one single motto of Sankalp: "To create an army of individuals, strong and capable enough to pass on their knowledge and wisdom to the next generation". Each year the students of Sankalp, write numerous success stories. It's that million-dollar smile on the face of those financially deprived yet successful children that help us keep going year after year.
